FOIAb3b

Front Page | Edit Page | Other Page 21

ALHAMBRA, CALIF
POST-ADVOCATE

EVENING - 12,872

JAN 3 1963

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300360017-8

[redacted]

JAN

Cohn Memorial Lecture Series Opens at Bruggemeyer Library in February

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

MONTEREY PARK — The Edgar Cohn Memorial Lecture Series, entering its second season of presentations, will begin the year with Richard Gump speaking at Bruggemeyer Memorial Library in February, according to Robert D. Bannon, program director of the Friends of the Library.

Bannon stated that this spring's lectures will depart from the primarily literary topic of last year and will explore subjects of current importance.

Gump is president of Gump's of San Francisco, internationally known dealers in objects of fine arts and crafts from every area of the world.

Gump, whose wide-ranging interests include writing, painting and music, as well as business, will discuss and amplify the topic of his first book, "Good Taste Costs No More."

In an aside, Bannon said, "Anyone who would like advanced knowledge of this subject can get Gump's book at the library, and his second book, "Jade: Stone of Heaven" will be available at the library in a couple of weeks.

In March, Loren Miller, Los Angeles attorney, will discuss several aspects of discrimination. Miller, who was admitted to th State Bar of California in 1934, presently active in several orga izations which promote the unde standing and acceptance of integration. He is vice president of the Los Angeles chapter of the NAACP and is on the legal staff of the national organization.

Miller is also vice president of the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing and co-chairman of the West Coast region of the National Urban League.

Dr. Willmoore Kendall, nationally-known in the fields of political science and economics, will be featured in April. Kendall's academic achievements include extensive publications in several languages and faculty membership in universities such as Yale and Stanford. He has had professional experience with the United Press Assn., the Central Intelligence Agency and with the Operations Research Office, Dept. of the Army.

Kendall is currently serving as a visiting professor at Los Angeles State College and also is associated with William F. Buckle, Jr., as a senior editor of the National Review. In his lecture at the library in April, he will explore the meanings of conservatism.

Speakers for the last two lectures in this year's series ar still to be confirmed. The subjec for discussion in May will b various phases of censorship.

In early June, the speaker wi be a member of the staff of Je Propulsion Laboratories in Pasa dena. At that time, lecture aud iences will learn what knowledg is being gained from space ex ploration.

ALHAMBRA WOMAN PRESENTS HOSPITAL WITH $1,000 FOUNDATION CHECK
Mrs. Katherine Marshall, right, presents gift to Episcopal Bishop Eric Bloy as Margaret J. Wherry looks on.

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300360017-8